

Privacy Notice

This policy is effective from 20 August 2026.

This policy covers all activities and services operated by the Language Data Commons of Australia (LDaCA), including via the project website, data portals and Authentication and Authorisation Infrastructure (AAI).

As this policy is updated over time the latest version will be made available on the LDaCA website: <https://www.ldaca.edu.au/>.

Name of the Service	Language Data Commons of Australia AAI Service (LDaCA)
Description of the Service	LDaCA AAI carries out registration and authentication of users, manages personal data for access control to services, and delivers access control data and relevant personally identifiable information to other services relying on it.
Data controller and a contact person	Program Manager, LDaCA The University of Queensland (ldaca@uq.edu.au)
Data controller's data protection officer (if applicable)	NA
Jurisdiction and supervisory authority	AU, Australia Instructions to lodge a complaint are available at The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner .
Personal data processed and the legal basis	LDaCA gathers contact and identifying information from your home organisation or login provider and personal data you provide, including your: • name • email address • home organisation • other identifiers provided by your identity providers (e.g. unique identifiers, affiliation) • other information that defines your authorisation to access services, which may include sensitive information such as birth date and cultural background • log files on your service activity which may include dates, times, IP address and services accessed

Policy Development Kit

Privacy Policy

© Owned by the authors and made available under license: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

Other Sources / Attribution / Acknowledgements: The research leading to these results has received funding from the European Community's Horizon2020 Programme under Grant Agreement No. 730941 (AARC2). Template derived from the GÉANT Data Protection Code of Conduct version 2, used under CC BY-NC-SA 4.0.

	Personal data is necessary for providing the Service in full. Other data you have consented to share is also processed. A user may choose not to identify themselves however this may limit our capacity to provide a service. We use legitimate interest as the legal basis for processing data; processing such data is needed for the purpose of delivering services in a safe and secure manner.
Purpose of the processing of personal data	LDaCA processes your personal data to identify and authenticate you as a user of the services, and to manage your access rights and other personal data for the services. Personal data in log files produced by the LDaCA components will be used only for internal administrative, operational, accounting, monitoring and security purposes. Personal data of this kind is processed based on legitimate interests of the LDaCA Service provider. Aggregated and de-identified data may be used for promotional purposes (e.g. 'LDaCA had XX number of people from NSW who accessed services').

Third parties to whom personal data is disclosed	LDaCA will release your personal data to the third-party services (personal data processors) which you access via LDaCA for service operation. The current list of processors is: • AAF (https://aaf.edu.au/) (AAF is based in Australia) • CILogon (https://cilogon.org) (CILogon is a service provided through AAF. It is based in Australia) • CADRE(https://cadre.ada.edu.au) (CADRE is based in Australia) LDaCA may disclose/share this information to other authorised participants via secured mechanisms. Disclosure to third parties is limited to data necessary to provide services, usually in conjunction with security and operation incident handling. We will not otherwise disclose your personal data to any third party without your prior consent unless we are obliged to do so by law, or where we need to do so in order to carry out the successful operation of the Service. Reasonable measures are taken to protect personal data from loss, unauthorised access, modification, disclosure or misuse.
How to access, rectify and delete the personal data and object to its processing	Go to https://www.ldaca.edu.au/contact or contact the Data Controller above. To rectify the data released by your Home Organisation, contact your Home Organisation's IT helpdesk.
Withdrawal of consent	If you wish to withdraw consent for the processing of your personal data, contact the Data Controller (see above.)
Data retention	Your personal data is deleted on request. You have the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning you without undue delay and the controller has the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay. The operational logs and related information are kept independently in order to guarantee the security of the infrastructure and its optimisation.

	To delete data held by your Home Organisation, contact your Home Organisation's IT helpdesk.
Data Protection Code of Conduct	Your personal data will be protected according to the Australian Access Federation Federation Rules , a common standard for the research and higher education sector to protect your privacy.